IMAGINE: 1st Annual Youth in the Arts Day

Featuring educational workshops on health and nutrition, personal growth and creative development in music, theater, visual art, crafts, behind-the-stage-jobs and more...

youth with a passion for the arts...

With limited resources available in schools today for arts programming and curriculum, IMAGINE: Youth in the Arts Day (www.imagine1211.com) offers youth ages 5 to young adults hands on educational workshops and performance opportunities for building self-esteem and self-confidence. IMAGINE: Youth in the Arts Day culminates the series of workshops with the final event, a staged theatrical production entitled, "IMAGINE," showcasing the talent of workshop participants and Arts Expo. The workshops take place from November 17th, 2010 through December 11th, 2010 at various venues.
